New York Stock Market.

New York, November 13. 11 a.m. The sharp reaction in the stock market which occurred during the last half hour yesterday, was met this morning by strong opening gains. In the first prices, ranging from 1/2 to 3/4 per cent, the market continued strong during the first forty minutes, and during that time made further gains of 1/2 to over 1 per cent. Erie, Reading, Lake Shore and St. Paul were most prominent in the advance, and Erie was extremely active, selling up to 2 1/2. The rest of the market made fractional gains, except Union Pacific, which was heavy. After 10.30 there was a small reaction, and the market became more feverish and irregular. At 11 o'clock the market was active and heavy.

New York, November 13. Noon. During the past hour the stock market has been much more quiet, with prices about steady for the old active list, and strong, as a rule, for low priced stocks. In noon the market was moderately active and steady, as only slight changes, in most cases from 11 o'clock figures.

New York, November 13. 3 p.m. Stock market weak and declined from 1/2 to 1 per cent during the first hour of the afternoon. Shortly after 1 o'clock the decline was checked, and market became less active and strong, and continued so until near the close, when it became irregular and closed excited, feverish and irregular.

LIVELY MARKET.

New York, November 13. Government dull and steady. Stocks were again very active. Erie common continues to head the list in the amount of business done. The stocks next in order are Missouri, Kansas & Texas, St. Paul, Denham, Lake Shore, Lackawanna, Northern Pacific preferred and Pacific Mail. The market was strong at the opening and extremely active during the first hour, when there were advances of 1/2 to over 1 per cent. The early gains are lost between 12 and 1 o'clock, and in some cases, fractional amounts in addition. In the last half hour, business was again very active, and prices were feverish and irregular, in which condition, in some cases, it closed at the best figures of the day, but many others 1/2 to 1 below the highest quotations. The net result of the day's operations is an advance ranging from fractional to over 2 per cent. Missouri Pacific and Western Union are exceptions, closing with a loss of 1/4 each. The prominent feature of the dealing was trading in Pacific Mail, which rose from 5 1/2 at the close yesterday to 60. The statement comes from official sources that this company is at present earning at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum on its stock.
